

ALL SAINTS AND ALL SOULS

During November, we give particular attention to our prayers for those who have departed this life. 'November List' envelopes, in which you may place the names of your loved ones to be remembered during the Eucharistic Prayer, are available in church; regular Masses will be offered for the Holy Souls this month. In this way, we on earth who are the Church Militant, are doing our part for the holy souls in Purgatory, who are the Church Expectant. November begins, though, with a day in honour of all those members of the Church Triumphant, the saints rejoicing in the presence of God in heaven. As a consequence, we are reminded of our baptismal vocation: to join them in heaven, as saints ourselves. Now, this is a vocation which we can embrace, or reject, but it isn't an easy one. Being a saint is, in large part, about allowing God to work his will in and through us, and not standing in his way, not opposing him out of pride, wilfulness, hardness of heart. To refresh our memories about good patterns of life, good habits and virtues which help to make us more receptive to grace, we should look at: the Ten Commandments, the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy, and the Precepts of the Church. To this end, you will find a handy summary for you to take home this weekend. There are also two prayer given here: the first is to help us, and is attributed to St Thomas Aquinas. The second is an act of prayer for the faithful departed, which you can use throughout this month (and indeed at any time), in commending to God your loved ones and those no longer remembered upon earth.

For the grace to do God's will

Grant me grace, O merciful God, to desire ardently all that is pleasing to you, to examine it prudently, to acknowledge it truthfully, and to accomplish it perfectly for the praise and glory of your name. Amen.

De profundis

Out of the depths I have cried unto thee O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

Let thine ears be attentive: to the voice of my supplication.

If thou, O Lord, shalt observe iniquities : Lord, who shall endure it?

For with thee there is merciful forgiveness :

and by reason of thy law I have waited for thee, O Lord.

My soul hath waited on his word : my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

From the morning watch even unto night : let Israel hope in the Lord.

For with the Lord there is mercy : and with him is plentiful redemption.

And he shall redeem Israel : from all his iniquities.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord: and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace. Amen.

O Lord, hear my prayer : and let my cry come unto thee.

Let us pray: O God, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful; grant to the souls of your servants departed (N. and N.) the remission of all their sins, that through pious supplications they may obtain the pardon which they have always desired. Who live and reign for ever and ever. Amen.

ARE YOU A CATHOLIC MILLENNIAL? If you're between 18 and 35(-ish), then the answer is probably yes. People will write articles about you for newspapers and the internet, and you are either the saviours of the human race, or its spiralling downfall. But, while people talk about you, nobody talks to you, and especially not about the challenges of being a Catholic today... So: watch this space for an announcement which will be encouraging and inspiring.
