

—FOR HOLY WEEK—

Canticle of the Passion

My friends and loved ones * draw near to me and stand against me.
 I am shut up and I cannot come forth * my eye mourns by reason of affliction and my sweat became like drops of blood * falling down on the ground
 For dogs have come about me * the assembly of the wicked have enclosed me
 I gave my back to the smiters * and my cheeks to those who plucked out the beard
 I hid not my face from shame * and from those who spit on me
 I am feeble and sorely broken *
 I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart
 The soldiers plaited a crown of thorns * and put it on my head
 They pierced my hands and my feet * I may tell all my bones
 They gave me poison to eat * and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink
 All those that see me laugh me to scorn *
 they shoot out their lips, they shake their heads
 They look and stare upon me * they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture Into your hands I commend my spirit * redeem me, Lord, God of truth.
 Remember your servant, O Lord. * when you come into your kingdom
 Jesus cried with a loud voice * and yielded up the spirit
 The Mercy of the Lord * I will sing for ever Surely he has borne our griefs * and carried our sorrows
 He was wounded for our transgressions * he was bruised for our iniquities
 All we like sheep gave gone astray * we have turned every one to his own way
 And the Lord has laid on him * the iniquities of us all Awake, why do you sleep, O Lord? * arise, and do not cast us off for ever Behold, God is my Saviour * I will trust, and not be afraid
 We ask you, come to help your servants * whom you have redeemed by your perilous blood.
 Have mercy on us, O good Jesus : Who in Your clemency suffered for us.
 Look down, we beseech You, O Lord, on this Your family for which Our Lord Jesus Christ did not hesitate to be delivered into the hands of the wicked, and suffer the torments of the Cross. Amen. St Catherine di Ricci (1522-1590)

Foxes have holes, and birds (their Maker said)
 Have nests, but I nowhere to lay my head.
 Our greater Jacob, hunted and alone,
 He made his pillows of the granite stone.
 So sepulchred, he saw a glory rise
 Stair upon stair above his darkened eyes;
 Angels trod up and down the slanting beam.
 With dawn he woke, and it was not a dream. Austin Farrer (1904-1968)

HOLY WEEK 2018 ✱ The sacred Triduum is celebrated at Our Lady of the Rosary (Maundy Thursday 8.00pm and Holy Saturday 8.00pm) and at Holy Rood (Good Friday 3.00pm) gives us a chance to come together as a parish to celebrate this most important time in the Church's year.
